AFFIDAVIT of PROBABLE CAUSE

On 06/23/2013 at approximately 1632 hrs., I was dispatched to the Super 7, which is within York New Salem Borough, for a car jacking. Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim, [REDACTED], who stated that she had parked her car in the handicapped spot, on the south side of the building, and entered the store. [REDACTED] continued that when she left the store, about 5 minutes later, she noticed that the pillow in her back seat was moving, and she identified a male subject laying down in her back seat. [REDACTED] stated that she asked the male subject what he was doing and that the man replied that he just wanted a ride. [REDACTED] stated that she told the man to leave her alone and then the man pulled out a 4-5 inch knife, with a grayish blade, and told her to get into the car or he would cut her. [REDACTED] stated that the man held the knife to her throat and she pushed him away. [REDACTED] stated that the man grabbed the keys out of her hand and she ran towards the store and didn't look back.

[REDACTED] described the male as a hispanic male in his early 20's, short black hair, thin build, wearing a gray sleeveless tee shirt with white writing, and had a slight spanish accent. [REDACTED] stated that the vehicle was a 2010 Chevrolet Cobalt, but did not know the registration at the time. [REDACTED] was later able to provide the VIN number and I obtained the PA reg. JCD5889 by entering the VIN number into JNET. [REDACTED] advised that she was just returning from vacation and the vehicle contained a brand new gateway laptop in the box, a suitcase containing various clothing items, 4 prescription bottles of medication, and her wallet containing her PA driver's license, 2 bank cards, and 1 Visa credit card.

Officer Hobbs spoke to a witness, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that at the time of the incident, he was in the parking lot of Jim and Nena's, which is located across the street from the south side of the Super 7. [REDACTED] stated that he saw the female victim wrestling around with a male by her vehicle. [REDACTED] advised that he thought that it may have been a domestic altercation. [REDACTED] stated that he then observed the female being pushed to the ground. At that point, [REDACTED] crossed the street to intervene. [REDACTED] stated that as he got across the street, the male subject was getting into the vehicle as the female was running into the store. He stated that he yelled at the male to stop. [REDACTED] stated that the male drove the vehicle behind the Super 7 and then turned left onto E. George St and went east.

At approximately 2130 hrs. on 6/23/13, I was informed by the York County Drug Task Force that they had information that Joshua Moore was the suspect from our Robbery that occurred in York New Salem earlier that day. The Task Force advised that Moore would be heading to the Grandview Car Wash on Baltimore St. in Hanover, in the stolen Chevrolet Cobalt.

At approximately 0015 hrs. on 6/24/13, a subject, who later identified himself as Josh Moore and confirmed by his JNET photo, arrived at the car wash, driving the stolen Chevrolet Cobalt, bearing PA reg. JCD5889. Moore was taken into custody without incident. Officer Bruckhart searched Moore and found a Susquehanna Bank card in Moore's left front pocket bearing the name [REDACTED]. I read Moore his Miranda Warnings and he stated that he understood them. Moore was transported to Penn Twp. PD and I drove the stolen vehicle to Penn Twp. PD, where it was stored in a secure portion of their facility. While driving the vehicle, I observed a large folding pocket knife on the passenger side front seat within plain view.

Officer Bruckhart and I interviewed Moore at Penn Twp. PD. Moore stated that he was at his sister's house, across from the Super 7, in York New Salem. Moore was unsure of the time, but stated it was around 1300 hrs., 1400 hrs. or 1500 hrs. Moore stated that he observed a female driver go into the Super 7 and he laid down in the back seat of her vehicle. Moore stated that she told him to get out of the car and he informed her that he had a knife and grabbed the keys from her hands. Moore stated that he drove the vehicle to Baltimore, MD. Moore stated that along the way, he stopped at the circle in Abbottstown and used the victim's Susquehanna bank card to obtain gas to fill the vehicle. Moore advised that he found the bank card in a bifold case that was in the vehicle. Moore stated that while in Baltimore, he traded the laptop that was in the vehicle for heroin that he would pick up later. Moore also advised that he put some other items, including the suitcase that was in the vehicle, into the trunk. Moore stated that while in Baltimore, he purchased heroin, which was currently in his wallet, inside the vehicle. Moore also advised that their was a syringe that belonged to him within the center console of the vehicle. Moore advised that he had other property within the vehicle including a knife, wallet, blue cup with change, cell phone and cell phone charger. More was unable to provide a written statement, but signed a transcript of his oral statement confirming his version of events.

Moore advised that he was on probation and that he had an outstanding probation warrant. I made contact with on call probation and they confirmed the warrant and advised to take Moore to booking on the bench warrant and that a detainer would not need to be issued. I then transported Moore to Central Booking for his outstanding warrant.

On 06/24/2013 at approximately 1430 hrs., Detective Conway searched the stolen Chevrolet Cobalt at Penn Township Police Department headquarters. Detective Conway found a camo handled pocket knife, with a three inch blade, on the passenger front seat; a black wallet on the front passenger seat containing two packets of heroin, Moore's Indiana ID card and Moore's SS card; a syringe and a small vial containing a white powdery substance in the center console; a Rite Aid bag on the front passenger seat containing a receipt for a phone charge purchased with [REDACTED] Susquehanna Bank card on 06/23/2013 at 2026 hrs. and the charger packaging containing cords; two bank cards with [REDACTED] name on them in the center console; a phone charger plugged into the outlet of the dash; and a bottle of Clorox bleach containing a small amount of liquid bleach in the floor behind the front seat. [REDACTED] advised that none of the items other than the bank cards belonged to her.

The vial containing a white powdery substance was field tested positive with a NARK #4 Cobalt Thiocyanate Reagent Kit for Cocaine, Procaine, Tetracaine, or Methadone. The packets of heroin and vial of the white powdery substance will be sent to the PSP lab for further testing.

Due to the above mentioned facts, which this affiant believes to be true and correct, I am requesting that the defendant, Joshua Moore, be arraigned on the charges of Robbery of a Motor Vehicle, Robbery, Drug Possession, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia that I have made.
